About the Office of the Planning Regulator

The Office of the Planning Regulator (OPR) is a new independent public body that has been established by Government to oversee the functioning and policy consistency of Ireland's planning process to ensure quality outcomes in relation to proper planning and sustainable development. The Planning Regulator who is the Chief Executive of the Office is Mr Niall Cussen who was appointed as Ireland's first Planning Regulator subsequent to a Government Decision in December 2018 and following an open and competitive recruitment process conducted by the Public Appointments Service.
